WHAT EVERY RATE INCLUDES

EIGHT THINGS. ALL OF THEM.

- Receiving & counting your inbound
- FNSKU labels applied
- Polybag with suffocation warning
- Expiration & lot codes recorded
- Packing into shipping cartons
- Outbound carton labels
- 30 days of storage
- Pickup booked for you

When another prep centre quotes you ninety-five cents, ask which of these eight they left out. It is usually four or five — then receiving, the bag, the dunnage and the storage arrive as separate lines.

SHIPPING IN YOUR OWN SEALED CASES

CASE FORWARDING

For manufacturer-sealed case packs that go into Amazon unopened. We receive the pallet, apply your Amazon and carrier labels, verify, stage and book the pickup. Nothing opened, no touch to your seals.

Priced per case, not per unit — what is inside does not change the work. If your manufacturer already packs Amazon-ready cases, tell us: we quote this instead of unit prep, even though unit prep would bill you twenty times more for the identical pallet.

Small-parcel pickup included. LTL or freight adds a flat $25 per shipment. Per-shipment minimum $75. Over 2,000 cases a month we quote lower.

HOW WE RUN

Counted within one business day

Received, counted and posted within a day of arrival. If anything is short, you hear it that day.

Out the door in 48 hours

Standard prep ships inside two business days. If something will be late, we tell you before the deadline.

Lot and expiration on record

Every ingestible logged at receipt and tied to the shipment it left on. Same-day answers on any lot.

Your first shipment is audited

Photos, counts and label confirmation before it leaves the building. Then we get out of your way.

An invoice you can read

Every line maps to a shipment, a pallet or an hour you approved. Not on this sheet, not on your bill.

A real person

A direct line, not a ticket queue. Email during business hours gets an answer the same day.

GETTING A QUOTE

FOUR THINGS, ONE NUMBER BACK

SEND US FOUR THINGS.

You get back one figure: what it costs to move a single unit from your manufacturer's dock into an Amazon warehouse. That is the number worth comparing between prep centres — not a rate card. Held six months. Costs nothing to find out.

SEND

1. How many units you ship in a month
2. How many units are in each case
3. Case size and weight
4. Whether your manufacturer already applies your Amazon labels
